How to Produce Video that Rocks

What do your videos look like? Shaky camera, poor lighting, scrolling messages like a car dealer? This isn't 2004. That kind of video just doesn't cut it any more.

You must keep the audience engaged, motivate and persuade them to take action. An effective video - that matches your content - will do that.

Spend only a couple of minutes on this site and you'll see what I mean. You CAN produce this level of quality, and it won't take years in a broadcasting school, or bust the bank.

Dreams of Recurring Income Streams

Many of you ask me in private emails which marketing courses I endorse. I don't talk about them publicly, because most of them are recycled junk, or stuff you already know.

There are exceptions though...

The first one is Continuity Blueprint by Ryan Deiss. I mentioned it in the last newsletter. It's all about setting up private sites.

You may have heard the buzz words, "continuity program." It means that customers pay a monthly fee and you get a recurring income.

Ryan's course is far too expensive if you ask me, but its fantastic training. I would have paid up to 300 bucks for it. In reality, he's asking more than five times that much.

I agree that continuity programs are a good thing, but they aren't brain dead simple to run. You need to install and maintain the software and the membership.

You also have to keep getting new members if you want to get paid. That's because the average person remains a member of a private site for just three to four months.

All Ryan needs to do is sell 525 copies of the course and he'll gross nearly a million dollars. Is it worth it?

For him... yes. For you? I want you to do something before you decide.

I suggest at a very minimum, that you grab a beverage and watch his videos. They are well worth the time investment as they demonstrate how private sites work.

After you see how Ryan does it, the cost of the course and the recurring income, won't seem so scary afterall.

Getting a Stampede of Repeat Buyers

The second course that I can recommend whole heartedly is Michael Rasmussen's Get More Buyers. It blows the lid off the marketing myth that the money is in the list.

His strategy works like a magnet, that attracts buyers and magically gets them to open their wallets. And he often outsells big name gurus with lists that are 10 - 100 times larger than his.

Without exception, every marketer on the planet wants Michael to be their affiliate. It doesn't matter what product he puts his mind to. He outsells everyone else.

He always finishes as one of the top affiliates. And through his training course, he shows you how easy it is, if you follow these few simple steps.

You'll never get better training than this. Building a base of repeat buyers is the most important thing you can do.

Plus, it's so affordable, you'd be crazy not to get it. ;-)

I worked through every inch of the course and give it my highest endorsement. Go buy it. You won't regret it. You can start applying the strategies right away.

Easy Membership Sites for Wordpress

If you like using Wordpress, you'll love this plugin. It makes setting up and installing private membership sites a breeze.

If you've tried other membership systems, you know all-too-well, that they are complicated and frustrating. They're too technical and don't provide the flexibility and features you need.

This system is very unique. It's extremely easy to use and contains all the powerful features you'd expect from a membership system in the one to four thousand dollar range.

But here's the best part... You don't need to "switch" to a new platform or learn anything new. Your entire membership site can be run within Wordpress.

It's integrated with the popular shopping carts. Features sequential content delivery. Unlimited membership levels. Flexible membership options. And simple installation.

You can start today. There's only one low payment. No monthly fees, or hidden costs... just good software that you've been waiting for.

How to Get Affiliate Revenue in No Time Flat

The fastest way to get risk-free traffic and start generating affiliate revenue within hours. Guaranteed.

- 1) Research affiliate programs.
- 2) Choose a topical niche market.
- 3) Develop a five page affiliate website.
- 4) Add a Wordpress blog to the site.
- 5) Subscribe to several Google alerts.
- 6) Comment on blogs featured in the alerts.
- 7) Use social bookmarking to tag their sites.
- 8) Make your own blog posts about the alerts.

That's all there is to it. My new affiliate marketing system called, GooBert. The "Google Blog Alert" method.

Repeat step 6 - 8 on a daily basis. It creates a feedback loop of traffic from their sites to yours.

More traffic comes by growing your bookmarks on the topic. The more bookmarks you make, the more people find them. They bookmark you as an authority on the topic. The traffic snowballs from there.

In my tests, I can ramp up to 400 visitors per day in less than a month. It has brought hundreds of new subscribers and thousands more in revenue because - due to the alerts - my sites and theirs are topically tight.

It's fast, fun and easy to do. It doesn't cost a dime extra. It takes only a few minutes per day. Plus, if you want to scale it up, it's easy to add more sites.

Get Alerts: <http://www.google.com/alerts>

If you are curious how the "GooBert" process works, a PDF containing the full strategy is bundled with the Affiliate Marketing Secrets course for only 15.95.

Plus you'll get over 3.5 hours of seriously good affiliate training and hundreds of fresh new marketing ideas, that would normally cost hundreds of dollars. But I refuse to do that to you, because I know times are tight right now.

You need your hard earned dollars more than I do. And I want to see you succeed. I want you to get full benefit of this training at a very affordable price. It's only 15.95 for a limited time.

(And trust me, my marketing buddies are calling me stupid for literally giving this stuff away. Plus I've miffed a few friends. So please take advantage of this ridiculously low price while you can.)

Oh, and one more thing... everyone I interviewed on these recordings are doing great. They tell me they're having their best months ever despite the economy.

It's proof positive that affiliate marketing not only works, it's recession proof. They're making an absolute fortune online, even in these times. Are you?
